Welcome to 44 Belvoir Park Rd, Ravenswood - an idyllic retreat set on a picturesque 3-acre block in a prestigious pocket of Ravenswood. This original 80s double brick home offers the best of country living, just moments away from the renowned Belvoir Park Golf Course and St Annes Winery. Only an 8-minute drive to Lansell Square Shopping Centre and Kangaroo Flat, and a mere 18 minutes to Bendigo CBD, this property provides the perfect blend of tranquility and accessibility. The home, presented in its original condition, offers plenty of 80s charm and character. Boasting a practical floor plan with generous proportions, it features 4 bedrooms, an additional study, 2 bathrooms, dual living areas, and a spacious kitchen. With solid bones and a substantial size, the property holds great potential as an ideal renovator's project - offering the opportunity to customize and modernize to your taste. Step outside, and you'll discover an expansive yard, perfect for children, pets, or those with dreams of a hobby farm. At the rear of the home, a large in-ground pool awaits, providing a refreshing oasis for long summers and endless family enjoyment. For those needing a space for projects, a substantial 24x9m shed with a concrete floor and power is ready to accommodate your creative pursuits or storage needs. This rare opportunity allows you to secure an acreage oasis with an abundance of potential at great value. Whether you're seeking a peaceful retreat or envisioning a transformative renovation project, 44 Belvoir Park Rd awaits your personal touch. Don't miss out on this unique offering - contact us today to arrange a private inspection and explore the endless possibilities that this property holds.
