Designed and lived in by the current owner, this home is nothing short of perfect and has been so well looked that you would think it was brand new. With all of the living area at the rear of the home, your privacy is assured and once you step inside you would think you were the only resident in the street. Three good sized built in bedrooms, master with walk in robe, ensuite and air conditioner. Separate office that could be easily be converted to a fourth bedroom if desired. Separate media/lounge room adds to the space in this home. Open plan kitchen, dining and family room area. The galley style kitchen has electric appliances and dishwasher. The kitchen window opens as a servery to the pergola area. This living area is fully tiled and air conditioned and leads to the covered pergola which runs the length of the house. There is a good sized yard that is fully colourbond fenced with room to erect a shed. Everything has been thought of at this property and all you have to do is move in.
