Pairing solid construction with a contemporary look and feel, this fantastic home excels in space and privacy over a superb two-storey floorplan. It opens to an over-sized living zone, demonstrating its superior capacities for family comfort as well as entertaining for special occasions. Bedrooms are all peacefully set upstairs, privately set away from the activity below. Expect a premium selection of inclusions in every room, combining to create a family home of rare quality and style. Set over a level block of 312 sqm, this home is cleverly designed for the growing family and requires very little garden maintenance, while there's abundant green space a little further down the road at Mount Druitt Park (110m). Regarded as one of the suburbs elite streets, Ropes Creek Road is close to schools, daycare centres and access to the motorway, while only minutes from Westfield Mount Druitt and the station. Lavish lighting fixtures add a touch of elegance to the living & dining. Stylish stone kitchen, quality Electrolux appliances with gas stovetop. Generous alfresco area beside low-maintenance garden with shed. Spacious bedrooms with BIRs, luxury master suite with walk-in & balcony. Downstairs guest powder room, two upstairs bathroom, main has spa. Internal entry to double garage, driveway has a sliding slat gate.
