Superbly located right across the road from the waterfront on Sandy Bays prestigious Golden Mile this substantial residence exudes classic mid century style of the highest standard. Beautifully constructed by its Master Builder owner the home has never left the family and has been meticulously maintained. Creatively sited on two titles of over 1,000 square meters of land the home enjoys a level and private rear yard perfect for both siblings and pets alike along with resort inspired in ground swimming pool. Three good sized bedrooms downstairs all with built in robes are serviced by a central bathroom and a large rumpus room. Alight the stairs or catch the lift to a resplendent sun filled lifestyle space with a large kitchen dining room opening to a sumptuous family living room and all enjoying panoramic water views and access to a substantial alfresco perfect deck. The master bedroom features the commanding water views along with a timeless en-suite. Ample garaging with a lock up workshop and further off street parking complete this irreplaceable holding.
