A private and leafy frontage camouflages this sprawling and inspired residence situated high on the hill with magnificent mountain and ridgeline views. The views are framed and captivated by the vast living hub and massive rear deck. A welcoming verandah overlooks the private and fully landscaped front yard and leads through to the impressive living hub. The sheer scope, ambience and size is unique and provides plenty of space for family and friends to relax. The classic wood kitchen suits the relaxed feel of the home and seamlessly integrates with the open living to form a focal point to connect with friends and prepare/share meals. A bank of timber bi fold doors truly brings the outside in, as well as, the views beyond. The rear deck is something to behold, the majesty of this space is undeniable, delivering cross breezes, elevation and panoramic vistas. At a glance:-

- 4 bedrooms (three with built ins) with bed 1 & 3 opening to the rear deck
- 4th bedroom has an adjoining powder room
- Renovated family bathroom with separate shower and striking standalone bath
- Convenient separate toilet
- Striking open plan living/dining
- Seamless transition to massive entertaining deck
- Private backyard with lush landscaping
- Polished hardwood flooring
- 2 x carport with side access and additional parking for boat or campervan
- Lockable storage room and laundry
- Panoramic views and sunsets
