Best Offers By 5pm Tuesday 5th March (unless sold prior) Set below street level to create soothing sanctuary and make its rear elevated outlook the beautiful backdrop to daily life, this is a classic 1970s Hills home in a tranquil locale that never gets old, just a pause from Belair National Park and Blackwood's countless conveniences. Making beautiful use of the block's wonderfully wide frontage, this gorgeous home smartly places its bedrooms in one wing and living areas in the other, guaranteeing a good night's kip in the ensuited master bedroom. With raked, timber beamed ceilings that soar to the heavens, the street-facing lounge/sitting room will fast become your favourite spot in winter and oozes that architectural flair synonymous with the home's distinct era and Hills location. Much loved by the one family since 1995, this light-filled home revels in both its impeccably presented originality and periodic updates - including a semi open-plan kitchen with breakfast bar, Miele appliances and a big glimpse of that rear aspect. Whip up some eggs on toast, brew that much-needed coffee and step out to that expansive deck, where lush gums rise to your eye line, a sprawling rear yard paints a picture of family freedom, and the sound of wildlife makes this the perfect start to the day. Every day. More to love: - An adored family home, ready to move in and love for yourself - What feels like a world away is only 20 minutes from the CBD- Flexible floorplan includes casual meals zone and two lounge/sitting zones - Ideally placed in a quiet and tranquil pocket of Hawthorndene - Classic 1970s Hills architecture - Lock-up shed/garage, carport and additional off-street parking- Efficient split r/c and cosy combustion wood fire for year round comfort - Storage galore, including built-in robes to all bedrooms - Large separate laundry - Established gardens with large open spaces to rear yard - Just a moment from the heart of Blackwood - A stroll or short drive from Joan's Pantry, Apex Park and Hawthorndene Oval- Moments from a range of quality schools, including St John's Grammar and Hawthorndene Primary School.
