Available to rent now is this spacious home, spread over two levels and positioned to capture the best views available, this property features an open plan living area, a well appointed and spacious kitchen with ample cupboard and bench space. The property has just benefited from a full bathroom renovation providing a fresh and brand new bathroom for your enjoyment. A sliding door leads from the dining room onto the paved rear back yard and low maintenance yard. On the same level are three good sized bedrooms, all with built-in robes and there's a separate study nook and a single automatic garage downstairs for secure parking or additional storage. On the sheltered side of the home is a two-tiered deck which takes full advantage of those stunning views and provides a superb place for entertaining or just relaxing in the afternoon sun.
