Exterior lines that evoke the mid-century era create a great introduction to this 3 bedroom home's series of cool, captivating spaces. The natural beauty of original solid floorboards complements the look and the feel, the size and the style of the central living room, where French doors reveal a landscaped backdrop that's decked for easy entertaining. Outlooks across the deep front garden enhance the indoor-outdoor character of the living room while the garage, easily returned to its original role, has been cleverly adapted to deliver additional living, with its own French doors to the rear. A kitchen/dining area's modern appliances and ample cabinetry meet all your needs with ease. 3 bedrooms, each of immediate appeal, share a bathroom that's been renovated so that its fixtures and finishes make their quality clear while also fitting in perfectly with the home's overall aesthetic. Attractive landscaping and convenient car parking provide ideal surroundings, close to schools, Harrington Square and Westona station.
