Comprising of 3 bedrooms, a generous size lounge and functional kitchen with dining space is this solid home in a quiet court location. The open entrance provides a second living area, rumpus room or office space. Large north facing windows let streams of natural light into the lounge and dining area, ideal to enjoy a sunny winter afternoon with the addition of the new gas heater. The bathroom includes a separate shower room, toilet, bath & vanity in well kept original condition. The home is ready to move into as is and also has lots of scope for the renovator to add their own flair. Outside there is a double length carport providing an undercover outdoor area which is teamed with a shed in the backyard for additional storage and an enclosed backyard with new fences.
