Renovated & Ready to Call Home

Positioned on a huge 746m² flat block in the quiet, leafy suburb of Stafford Heights, this wonderfully maintained and recently renovated home offers tranquil mountain views to the front and fantastic entertaining at the rear.

All on one level and with a spacious open plan, living, dining and kitchen at its heart, this property is designed with easy family living in mind. Polished timber floors and neutral shades offer a timeless feel, and easy for you to add your own interior style with a few personalised touches. The central kitchen has recently been updated and contains everything you need to cook up a feast for your family and guests including quality appliances as well as plenty of storage and counter space. Bi-fold doors flow out from the living room to the covered rear deck, an ideal spot for entertaining. The deck overlooks the pool and beyond to the grassed backyard that is fully fenced and partially shaded by trees.

The master bedroom is complete with built-in mirrored robes and an ensuite. Two further bedrooms, one with built-in robes, provide plenty of accommodation for the whole family and they are serviced by a light filled bathroom with walk-in rain head shower and a separate freestanding bathtub.

Other features of note include:

- * Air conditioning and ceiling fans throughout
- * Plenty of internal storage
- * Veranda at the front and rear
- * 2 car lock-up garage
- * Scope to build in downstairs and make use of the enormous open space, perfect for a fourth bedroom, rumpus/living or both

Stafford Heights is situated just 10km north of Brisbane, with the CBD and airport both reachable in 15 minutes. You'll be located close to all kinds of amenities, with public transport links and the Rode Plus Shopping Centre just moments away on foot. Stafford Heights is also home to some excellent schools, beautiful parks and green spaces, and lovely cafes and restaurants.

A viewing is highly recommended.
