This older style home with modern features is a gleaming property that has been born again with a new and inviting appearance and a warming ambience. Being the pinnacle of contemporary design with open plan living off the tastefully renovated kitchen, while still providing spaces for individual privacy with a cosy formal lounge boasting a warm combustion fire, air conditioning, polished floorboards, feature brickwork, built-in shelving and timber fret work. The two large bedrooms have high ceilings providing a real sense of space and openness and the master has an impressive ensuite, which along with the main bathroom have both recently been renovated to a high standard. Outside the home boasts a large, semi covered deck plus a large pergola, both ideal for entertaining, plus a secure carport. Call today to arrange a private viewing!
