This beautiful free-standing home offers a private oasis surrounded by lush gardens, just moments away from the hustle and bustle of the city. The beautiful front garden is fully fenced and secluded, offering a private and secure space to relax with a coffee or tea. The light and bright home with traditional polished floorboards throughout features an open plan living area opening to the kitchen area. The spacious bedroom is just as bright and light as the rest of the home. With traditional features, the bathroom features a shower and there is a separate powder room for extra convenience. The back of the property provides another tranquil relaxation space. Located just moments away from vibrant Fremantle and the pristine shores of South Beach, you'll enjoy the perfect blend of urban convenience and coastal charm. 6 month lease preferred with the option to renew the tenancy. AT A GLANCE: - Beautiful traditional updated home in the heart of White Gum Valley - Moments away from Fremantle and South Beach - Light and bright home - Open plan living area - Kitchen with ample bench space - One bedroom - Separate bathroom and powder room - Fireplace is not to be used throughout the tenancy - 6 month lease preferred - Pets are considered - Tenants must be committed to look after the gardens
