

454 Torryburn Road, Uralla, NSW 2358

House For Sale

Tuesday, 19 March 2024

454 Torryburn Road, Uralla, NSW 2358

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 165 m2

Type: House

Lachlan Cullen
0438740138

Auction 2nd May 2024

'Spring Creek' a captivating countryside retreat that embodies the essence of serenity and rural beauty. Positioned on a picturesque 409 acre title, there is scope to enjoy either as a peaceful bush retreat, or follow your agricultural pursuits. The architectural charm of this home brings in a real country feel. Consisting of 3 bedrooms, the main with private bathroom, all with original cyprus timber walls & ceilings, open plan kitchen, enclosed verandah on the south & eastern side, and open verandah on the western side. A formal dining room with original charm adds to the cosiness of the home. There is a designated study, second bathroom and laundry. An original meat house adjoins the home being utilised as a garden shed. Outdoor entertaining on the paved patio with a manicured garden and open countryside as your backdrop. A new 3 bay steel framed lock up shed with slab floor. The home is serviced with a 6kw solar system, and ample rainwater storage. Venturing outdoors reveals a private oasis awaiting exploration. A well maintained landscaped garden with seasonal flowers & bulbs & mature trees. Timber species include White & Yellow Box, Apple Box, Redgum, Kurrajong, Stringybark, and Grass Trees. The property has been subdivided into 6 paddocks with the majority consisting of native grass species. Whether you seek a peaceful retreat to recharge your spirits or a permanent haven to call home, this property offers the perfect blend of comfort and tranquillity. Contact us today to schedule a private viewing or to receive further details about this exceptional property.