

455 Darwin River Road, Darwin River, NT 0841

Sold Residential Land

Monday, 14 August 2023

455 Darwin River Road, Darwin River, NT 0841

Area: 8 m2

Type: Residential Land

Mimie Pollock

0889315000

$230,000

Basking in the total serenity of rural living, surrounded with native bushlands and nothing else - this property is 8 Ha of absolute privacy and tranquillity. What you choose to do with this untouched block is up to you. Build your dream home or a weekend getaway or sit on the property as an investment and see what the market does in a few years time. The property has a set back from the main road with a native bushland belt plus a cleared driveways around the property and a front driveway turn around where you can park up while you plan where you want to put the house. There is plenty of native trees and shrubs along with wildlife on the property so set up your house to take advantage of the views, the wildlife and the sunsets because you will spend most of your time outdoors enjoying Darwin's tropical lifestyle. Approx. 40 minutes from Coolalinga Central with all of your major retailers hosted there along with markets at Berry Springs and Coolalinga, there are schools throughout the rural area to choose from along with bus routes for the kids and weekends spent boating, camping or fishing. Just ask a local for the best places to hang out. 8 Ha of total privacy Clear boundary lines around the property Native bushlands and wildlife Set back from the road with a native bushland screen Cleared driveway into the property Cleared firebreaks around the perimeters Create your dream home or weekend get away Sealed main road access, easy commute to the highway Rural setting, enjoy the local water ways and total serenity Ask the neighbours for the best riding paths or hang outs