A Blyth Street public offering is entering the rentals market for the first time since 2016. Long-term renters exiting a co-renting agreement and moving onto bigger and better things leaves this cozy rental property open for accommodating residents.This brick veneer dual occupancy three bedroom home is a fit for those seeking generously sized bedrooms, ample lounge space, functional kitchen/meals area, modern bathroom/laundry facilities and a courtyard providing a rolling green garden landscape and additional storage. If location's a key factor in your final decision, the centrality of this home proves an eye-watering prospect with Sydney Road and Lygon Street, Brunswick running parallel. Public transport is in abundance with buses, trams and trains positioned within walking distance of the residence, while hospitality is plentiful for those desiring a scrumptious smorgasbord of international and local cuisines.Feel free to make your presence felt at the open for inspection.
