An exceptional opportunity presented to market after 52 years, 46 Captain Pipers Road, Vaucluse offers a quintessential family lifestyle in a premier neighbourhood. Captivating with manicured greenery and a picturesque period facade, you're beckoned inside to a carefully cherished and impressively spacious multi-zonal layout spread across two storeys. Graceful period detailing reflecting the early 1900s adorn the formal front living room, while the rest of the homes floorplan effortlessly flows through from space to space, leading out to a private garden oasis at the rear. The property provides abundant accommodation of five quiet bedrooms. Three positioned downstairs and two upstairs. Complete with glimpses across to the ocean and a lock-up garage, this beautiful residence is just waiting for a new family to live and grow now for years to come. It claims a peaceful setting in a lovely tree lined pocket of Vaucluse, just a short stroll from Vaucluse Village, the shops at Rose Bay North and esteemed schools. Also only moments away are various harbour coves, Watsons Bay Ferry, Rose Bay Marina and scenic walking paths. - Formal and casual multi-zonal layout offers sensational family flexibility - Elegant front lounge room displays chandelier adorned ornate ceilings and rich timber detailing - Immaculately kept kitchen has stainless gas stove, dishwasher and ample cabinetry - French doors flow out to beautiful garden sanctuary embraced by flowering trees and lush hedging - Five private bedrooms and three bathrooms spread across two storeys - Newly painted inside and out plus brand new satellite dish - Sandstone features and established foliage leads to tranquil sunroom - Lock up garage with workshop area at the rear - Backyard reveals scope to create swimming pool (STCA) Minutes from Camp Cove, Parsley Bay, Milk Beach and The Hermitage Foreshore Trail Walk to Kambala, Kincoppal, Vaucluse Public School and city buses
