A beautiful single level family home positioned in a quiet back street with beautiful views and a wonderful, homely feel. Situated close to Dapto town centre, local schools, public transport and easy freeway access, this family home features (3) bedrooms with built-in robes and walk-in robe to the main bedroom, separate study, large open plan lounge with defined dining, good size kitchen, family and sitting rooms, two way modern bathroom, second toilet, large rear covered entertaining area and decking which flows onto the good size level back yard. Other features include a lock up garage plus a second garage/workshop, a front bullnose veranda capturing the east facing views, air conditioning, a low maintenance yard and gardens plus views of the Illawarra escarpment. This property has been loved by the same family for 48 years and is ideal for the first home buyer, investor or someone wanting to upgrade to a great family home.
