This three bedroom ground level home is perfect for the family that want a home that they can live in and transform to their desire. Positioned on a large 817sqm parcel of land and boasting a 24m frontage with a brand new and impressive front fence, which boasts, dual driveway access, each with auto entry gates and one pedestrian access gate. Located at the rear is a brand new in ground salt water pool as well a 5m x 9m shed which incorporates a workshop and air-conditioned storeroom/workshop. The house itself is typical of the era it was built and comprises features which are unique to our tropical climate, from the positioning of the house, the use of louvre windows and the breezeway style bedroom walls. The kitchen and bathroom are both original, yet well maintained for their age. Homes like this are sought after as they present an affordable entry into the market for those who want a house on a big block which they can live whilst they transform it into their dream home.
