Generous in size and family appeal, this four bedroom, two bathroom home has a lot to offer in a great family location. Nestled in a peaceful residential street just a short walk from Lancaster Pre-school and Mooroolbark East Primary and within easy drive of vibrant central Mooroolbark complete with station, shops and many other amenities. At the entry to the home a light filled lounge enjoys outlook to the leafy front garden and leads to a huge open plan kitchen, dining and family room. Peacefully zoned, three bedrooms are served by family bathroom with private master bedroom complete with walk in robe and ensuite tucked away at the rear. Situated on a sizable 863m² (approx.) block, discover a good size rear yard with covered paved BBQ area easily accessed via sliding door from the family room. The home features double carport with door to the family room and four car garage. Further comforts include central kitchen with timber cabinetry and dishwasher, handy laundry and gas ducted heating.
