Situated in a quiet and convenient location you will find 46 Milburn Road, Tamworth. This outstanding property boasts three great sized bedrooms with the master bedroom offering a walk-in-robe and ensuite. The home provides two living spaces making this a perfect home for the family. The modern kitchen makes meal time a breeze with loads of cupboard and storage space along with a gas cooktop and stainless steel appliances. You will find ceiling fans throughout the home along with two split systems which will have your heating and cooling sorted all year round. If you enjoy entertaining friends and family or hosting events, the undercover back patio area is going to be a hit! With lights already connected and power available, this is the perfect place to relax and unwind after a busy day. A double lock up shed down the back with side access through double gates means you have additional parking and storage. Homes like this do not come on the market very often. If you would like an inspection or more information please reach out to Justine on 0459 226 570 or Isabel on 0457 123 257, or simply pop along to our next open home.
