Nestled in the rolling green hills of Pinbarren is the low-set four-bedroom, two bathroom contemporary home which has recently been renovated. Privacy is assured from the generous outdoor entertainment area which overlooks the stunning inground 8m x 4m saltwater pool which is backdropped by rural views. The kitchen is fitted with modern appliances, oversized island bench that serves as a secondary dining area and allows you to enjoy cooking while entertaining your guests and family. The kitchen window overlooks the properties paddocks and takes in the same amazing views as the entertainment area. With stone benchtops, black ceramic sink, five burner gas cooktop and electric oven, even the best bakers will be envious. Dining room opens onto the outdoor entertaining patio, whilst the lounge room offers a separate space to sit back and relax. The home features high ceilings throughout, wide hallways, four spacious bedrooms with the master incorporating a large ensuite and walk in robe. The master bedroom overlooks the inground pool and country views. All rooms feature plantation shutters and floors are in a rich timber look vinyl plank. A large 9m x 14m Colourbond 4 bay shed with rollers doors which can be accessed via the laneway. There are 2 x 5000 gallon tanks off this and in addition to this is another 6 x 9 m shed with another 5,000 rainwater tank off of this. The house yard is dog fenced with well established gardens and 45,000 litres of water from the house. Pinbarren is a sort after small acreage living located 4 minutes to Pomona.
