Stay connected in this multi-level townhouse at Phoenix. Lot 466 is a stone's throw away from the beautifully landscaped wetland reserve and village park. The park and wetlands have been designed specifically to be the social hub of the Phoenix community bringing families together. With flexible living spaces, landscaped courtyards and contemporary facades, your new home is designed to entertain and built to last. This neighbourhood of two, three and four bedroom townhouses was made with you in mind, whether this is your first home, the next step in your family's life, a decision to downsize, or a smart investment choice.
