

467 Jamberoo Road, Jamberoo, NSW 2533

House For Sale

Friday, 3 May 2024

467 Jamberoo Road, Jamberoo, NSW 2533

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 6

Parkings: 4

Area: 4 m2

Type: House

Andrew de Montemas
0484349072

LisaMarie Cauchois
0421216512

Contact Agent

Welcome to Terragong, a captivating blend of historical significance and contemporary comfort, offering a truly exceptional residence in the charming town of Jamberoo. Nestled amidst the serene beauty of Jamberoo's emerald pastures and framed by the majestic cliffs of the Illawarra Escarpment, this Colonial Georgian masterpiece stands as a testament to timeless elegance. While traditional Federation-style homesteads may dominate the area, Terragong's unique architectural flair sets it apart as a local landmark, evoking a sense of grandeur and prestige. Terragong boasts a rich heritage that is sure to enchant any history enthusiast. The property's mature trees, including the iconic Magnolia Grandiflora, Morton Bay Figs, and Norfolk and Bunya Pines, not only enhance its aesthetic appeal but also contribute to its charm, with some trees dating back over 150 years. Located just a leisurely two-hour drive from Sydney and Canberra, Jamberoo offers the perfect balance of tranquility and convenience. From pristine beaches to native rainforests, the region boasts an abundance of natural beauty waiting to be explored. And with its rich agricultural history, including its role in the development of the renowned Illawarra Shorthorn cattle breed, Jamberoo offers a unique glimpse into Australia's past. Whether you're seeking a peaceful retreat from city life or yearning to immerse yourself in the rich tapestry of Jamberoo's heritage, Terragong presents an unparalleled opportunity to make this enchanting locale your permanent home. Experience the beauty, history, and tranquility of Terragong – where past and present seamlessly intertwine to create a truly extraordinary living experience.