One of the first homes built in Alpine Ridge Drive is still one of the best, with a prime elevated position, beautiful views and the perfect North East solar aspect. There's even a sauna in the downstairs bathroom, and the original spa bath! Yes the decor is a little retro now, but everything is in immaculate condition, ready for you (or your paying guests) to enjoy after a hard day on the slopes of Mt Buller, fishing in the Delatite River or perhaps out on your motorbike out in the State Forest. There's so many other outdoor adventures to pursue in this amazing part of the world, but maybe you just want to relax at home in front of the fire and enjoy the peace and quiet on offer here...and those stunning mountain views!
