WOW. This home is one to surely impress. Built with the family in mind and for those who love to entertain, you're welcomed inside by the oversized hallway and from there on everything is larger than life. All the bedrooms are extra big with a huge master suite at the front and the other 3 towards the rear of the house, allowing for privacy for the parents. The open plan living area has high vaulted ceilings with sky lights, gorgeous kitchen with plenty of bench space and a formal lounge and dining area. Outside has been design to entertain, with the deck area straight off the back door built in around a welcoming spa and BBQ area. Perfect for those summer parties, down the side of the house there is still enough grassed area for the kids to play, and side access for the toys if needed.
