A stylish interior renovation has given this gorgeous freestanding residence a smart new look and made it a great home for the entertainer. It is light and airy throughout and features an immaculately presented low-maintenance layout with lots of original character and a bright modern design. If convenience and lifestyle are high on your list, you will be instantly impressed by its popular location in one of Croydon Park's best streets that's just a few blocks from Ashfield's major shopping, transport and dining hub, with easy access to quality schools, parks and bus connections. Occupying a prime corner position in a leafy neighbourhood setting A dual-level layout with light-filled open plan living and dining areas An all-weather entertainment deck amid a lush landscaped garden Lock-up carport and workshop with side access from Arthur Street A fully renovated kitchen that has a great outlook over the backyard Four bedrooms include an upper-level fourth with huge built-in storage Lovely high ornate ceilings, timber floors and decorative features Within a few minutes to Croydon village and Ashfield Aquatic Centre
