Auction Location: On site This elegant character home has undergone a stunning transformation, showcasing chic interiors and quality finishes throughout to offer stylish contemporary living in an outstanding lifestyle location. Situated in a peaceful pocket of sought-after East, within walking distance of local cafes, the Garden Street shopping strip, less than 5 minutes from South Geelong Station, the CBD, medical precinct, and Waterfront, enjoy convenient central living in a quiet community setting. Set behind a high picket fence and neatly presented gardens, the home is nestled in a private setting. Stepping inside, a wide entry hall showcases high ceilings, fresh white interiors, clean lines, and beautiful Tasmanian Oak flooring. Three bedrooms are positioned at the front of the home, the master featuring a bay window with seating, built-in robes and luxurious ensuite with walk-in frameless shower, modern vanity, quality fittings and finishes. The central main bathroom continues in the tasteful finishes of the home. The extension seamlessly transitions to a light-filled open plan kitchen, dining and living area with a gas log fire creating a warm and inviting ambience throughout. The well-appointed kitchen features timber benchtops, 900mm stainless steel oven and cooktop, dishwasher, classic subway tile splashback, generous storage provisions, and a servery window to the alfresco for effortless entertaining. Additional home features include split system heating and cooling, ceiling fans and modern laundry with plenty of storage. Outside, the undercover entertaining extends out to a north facing sun deck, overlooking the lush lawn area which offers a private and secure space for the kids or pets to play. Rear access to an oversized double garage provides off-street parking with additional room for storage and workshop space, plus roller door access to the backyard for fantastic functionality. Immaculately presented from start to finish, this spectacular home is ready and waiting to be enjoyed. Don't miss the opportunity to make it yours!
