Once in a lifetime, a property comes along that truly takes your breath away. Nestled in the quaint little town of Eumundi and just a short stroll to the beautiful Main Street, stands this iconic c1911 Queenslander that has been beautifully restored and renovated. Set on a large 895m² block, the current owners have put their heart and soul into this home and from the moment you pull up out the front, you instantly get the feels and the goosebumps take over. You are greeted with a beautiful staircase leading up to the front verandah, where you can picture yourself with that morning coffee or spending a lazy afternoon with a book in hand listening to the sound of the birds on the balustrade. Are you in love yet...wait until you walk through the front door! The classic high ceilings, VJ paneling and all the iconic features that make Queenslanders what they are really stare you in the face as you enter the front door. The stunning dark timber floors are a beautiful feature throughout the home and really set the mood for what awaits you. If you are looking for a larger family home than you have certainly come to the right property. The home consists of four large bedrooms all with built in wardrobes, ceiling fans, air conditioning and the thing that makes this property so unique, is the fact that each bedroom has its own ensuite. Something very rare in a home of this era! They often say the kitchen is the heart of the home and this one certainly ticks that brief. The stunning kitchen offers a great place for the family to gather. With its sheer size, ample bench and cupboard space, quality appliances throughout, many fond family memories will be made in this kitchen for generations to come. The living spaces on offer also provide such a sense of comfort and coziness. From the warm and inviting fireplace to the endless louvered windows, natural light and stunning breezes throughout the home, you really do forget you are right in the heart of town and not in the middle of nowhere. The peace and privacy the home offers is second to none and you really do feel like you are in your own piece of paradise. The beautiful gardens take you on a journey as you head out the back. Meandering along the path, you are surrounded by tropical gardens, little alcoves and loads of hidden gems. Your own private oasis awaits! Enjoy a swim in the inground pool and listen to the sound of the water cascading from the waterfall. Entertain family and friends by the pool side and enjoy those weekend BBQ's in the sun. Features at a glance: - Four large air conditioned bedrooms with built in wardrobes, ceiling fans and ensuites - Multiple living areas ideal for the family in mind with air conditioning and fireplace for the winter months - Stunning kitchen with quality appliances and loads of bench and cupboard space - Separate laundry and powder room - Timber floors, high ceilings and all the charm you would expect from a Queenslander - Inground pool - Entertaining areas - Tropical gardens - Fully fenced block - Double carport and large additional storage.
