Pleasantly situated 13km south of Crystal Brook the former Narridy Post Office was originally constructed in 1873 before ceasing operations in 1974 where it has since been utilised purely as a private residence. Positioned on an approx. 1,600m² corner allotment the property offers a flexible floorplan including potentially 3 bedrooms, central lounge room, followed by a country style kitchen including timber cabinetry, electric stove + a wood stove. A better block extension offers bathroom and laundry facilities + a spacious second living area featuring a striking timber ceiling. Externally the property enjoys a peaceful rural outlook all round and offers established gardens, shedding, chookyard, rainwater storage and plenty of scope add your own touch. The peaceful lifestyle you've been waiting for! RLA110
