A captivating mix of spacious style, detailed quality and low-maintenance luxury. This beautifully balanced four bedroom home with it's own street frontage and no body corporate, seamlessly flows over two light-filled levels. Nestled in a tranquil, family-friendly neighbourhood of Kingsbury, this near-new home with master bedrooms on each floor has been carefully crafted into a truly functional masterpiece. The interior opens into a welcoming entrance passageway that flows past a euro laundry and master bedroom with ensuite, before stepping into an open plan kitchen, dining and living domain at the rear, framed by stackable doors accessing a wonderful rear yard with plenty of space for entertaining and with minimal upkeep. The dazzling stone kitchen showcases ILVE stainless steel appliances and plentiful storage. Upstairs houses an additional three spacious bedrooms (master with ensuite) along with a fully tiled family bathroom with bathtub. Additional highlights also include; heating, cooling, engineered timber flooring, alarm system, electric gate entrance with a secure car space plus a single remote garage with internal access. Brilliantly positioned within close distance to parklands/reserves/walking tracks, local schools & universities, local shopping hubs, public transport, Plenty Rd Tram and much much more!
