Please download the free GAVL app. Secluded at the end of a peaceful cul-de-sac, surrounded by elegant character residences and quality contemporary homes, this mid 1950s character weatherboard presents an array of future possibilities. Poised on a level 589sqm block with a sundrenched 23m wide north facing street frontage, the home offers a superb prospect for those looking to update, extend, or to build a brand new dream family home (STCA). Ideally positioned within walking distance of Vermont Primary School, Brentford Square Shopping Centre, Mitcham Station, Rangeview village shopping and cafés, buses and an array of leafy parks and playgrounds, the home is also set close to EastLink, Forest Hill Chase and Eastland Shopping Centre, and is in the prized Vermont Secondary College zone. Four bedrooms include two equipped with built-in wardrobes, a skylit private office space with a desk and inbuilt shelving. The home also includes a central bathroom with a bathtub, an additional W/C, a large laundry, gas ducted heating, and an oversized single lock-up garage / workshop plus a single carport.
