Located in the ever sought out Central Walk Estate, this Burbank built home of just 5 years old is as neat and tidy as the day it was handed over. Set on 476m², get ready to be impressed. Made up of 4 bedrooms, 2 living areas and 2 bathrooms the home is set to accommodate both the young family and those with teens. The floorplan lends itself to allow a little bit of separation with the master and formal living to the front of the house with the further 3 bedrooms to the rear. The kitchen, dining and open plan living area is central to the floorplan and allows a great viewing point through the alfresco and generous back yard. Park your car in the double garage and call this one home! A home that will impress many with its flow and natural light along with its established low maintenance gardens. Just a short walk to Drysdale Central shops and brief car drive to the wonderful offerings of the Bellarine Peninsula.
