If you're looking for your first home, then you can't go past this solid home. Upon entering this home, you walk into the main hallway with all three bedrooms of to the right and all finished with new paint and carpets. To the left we have the huge lounge room with wood fire and large split system A/C, that opens onto the kitchen and dining area. To the back of the property, you have the bathroom, laundry and what could be a fourth bedroom or second living area. The rear of the property offers a large alfresco entertaining area, garden shed and easy maintained gardens. book your private inspection today.
