This is quite possibly the best view of Joondalup lake you will ever see. From your kitchen sink or your outdoor setting there is no way you will get sick of watching the sun rise over Lake Joondalup every morning. Manicured gardens set the standard right from the front of the home. Enter through to sunken formal lounge and dining separating the rear living to the front bedrooms. With good sized bedrooms and two functional bathrooms this is a great family home. Modernised kitchen with adjoining living compliments the most amazing backyard space. Come and have a look to take in everything this home has to offer. I bet you have never seen anything like this... Register to view online.
