Impressive in its sense of scale, style and effortless sophistication, this is one property you will definitely want to see in person. Upon entering the home, you are welcomed by statement double doors, beyond which, a lovely foyer leads on to the first distinct zone within the easy flow-through living space. As versatile as you need them to be, these living spaces feel wonderfully inviting, while opening out front and back to appealing alfrescos. Remaining inside for now, wander on through to the superbly stylish, newly renovated kitchen, which offsets chic white cabinetry with warm timber benchtops and sleek black appliances, complemented by informal breakfast bar dining. Grouped together along one side of the home, each of the four bedrooms is incredibly generous, providing more than enough space for seating or a study. Further enhanced by a large walk-in robe, the master also features a stunning ensuite. Meanwhile, the main bathroom flaunts another recent renovation, revealing a luxurious freestanding bathtub, dual vanity and frameless walk-in shower. Moving outside, get ready to be impressed, as you stand on the expansive rear entertainer's verandah, taking in the vast backyard. Looking out over tropical reserve, the backyard shows off cleverly tiered landscaping featuring a bounty of tropical and native plants. Residences such as this - in sought-after settings such as this - simply don't come along every day. Be sure to organise your inspection today
