Nestled in a quaint and bustling township, this charming residence presents a splendid opportunity for families and first-time buyers to secure their slice of suburban bliss. Boasting a generous 602 square-meter plot, the detached home effortlessly combines comfort with convenience, creating an enviable living experience. Step inside to discover a delightful array of features, including the warmth of hardwood timber flooring that flows seamlessly throughout the abode. The home is tailored to meet the needs of modern living, with the master bedroom serving as a peaceful retreat, complete with a split system for optimal temperature control, ensuring a sanctuary for rest and rejuvenation. Family gatherings are well-catered for with three oversized bedrooms, each with built-in robes providing ample storage. The inclusion of an ensuite, in addition to a family bathroom, ensures morning routines are a breeze. The north-facing living area invites an abundance of natural light, enhancing the sense of space and creating an inviting atmosphere for relaxation and socializing. Outside, a sun-drenched deck overlooks the low-maintenance and private garden, offering a perfect setting for alfresco dining beneath the pergola. Secure off-street parking, including a double garage, guarantees peace of mind for vehicle storage. The property's central location is a stone's throw from the main street, Coleman Park, and both indoor and outdoor pools, enriching family life with leisure and convenience. Moreover, a quick stroll will take you to the exciting new IGA, adding to the list of local amenities that make this house a truly desirable home. With all this on offer, the stage is set for a fulfilling family lifestyle or an astute investment in your future.
