

48 Stuart Street, Mullumbimby, NSW 2482

Sold House

Saturday, 17 February 2024

48 Stuart Street, Mullumbimby, NSW 2482

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Area: 607 m2

Type: House

Paul Eatwell
0266842615

Contact agent

Desirable central town living with every convenience within walking distance. This quaint 40's weatherboard cottage reflects the yester year of Mullum's historical values and simple architecture. Ripe for restoration, returning new life into these once beautiful homes. Original timber floors under floor coverings, 10ft ceilings and period features. Chillout on the semi-enclosed front verandah with louvre shutters watching the hustle and bustle of town passing by. Snuggle into the cosy inner living room for peace and quiet or a good movie. Open plan kitchen, dining and study nook ideal for working from home. 2 Pac kitchen, ample bench and cupboard space with pantry and stove. Two really good sized bedrooms with room for a robe, desk and dresser. Enjoy your morning cuppa from the back covered patio catching the warm rays of sunshine. Inner fenced yard great for a pet, separates the small garden shed and 'cubby house'. Convenient rear lane access with rustic single garage and attached carport. Excellent potential for the addition of a back studio to supplement your income. Meld into an amazing and vibrant town, full of life, great food, entertainment and wonderful people. Walk to the shops, 10mins drive to the beach with rainforest and National Parks just minutes away. The North Coast lifestyle beckons you, come and enjoy the pleasures of a simple life. Made this your home or invest in your future, inspect now!