On an attractive tree-lined street moments from Kensington Village, this charismatic two bedroom plus garden studio Victorian home offers light filled living in a vibrant lifestyle location. A timber block facade, iron lacework and quintessential picket fence introduction make way for a series of traditional spaces. Highlighted by towering ceilings with rosettes, arched hallway, sash windows and timber mantled fireplaces. A central living room, with mirrored timber mantle over an inbuilt electric heater, provides an ambient space for relaxation. While a remodelled kitchen/meals, with stainless steel appliances, dishwasher, timber bench tops and plentiful storage, overlooks an alfresco deck and sizeable garden bathed in dappled, northerly sunlight. A modern studio, with powder room, offers a multitude of options. Including home office, guest or teenager retreat. Charming and spacious bedrooms enjoy a refreshed and bright main bathroom. Features timber floors, plush carpet, split-system air conditioners, laundry alcove/storage and rear lane access. Simply walk to cafés, shops, schools, trains and acres of parkland.
