Only a stones throw from Lara Primary and Secondary School, not to mention the 3-minute drive or 14-minute walk to Lara Village with Coles, Woolworths, Cafes, Bakery, Butcher, Australia Post and more, this brick veneer home is centrally located and the ideal property for a first home buyer, downsizer or investor. The floor plan is spacious with 3 large bedrooms and an open plan living area that captures the daylight and setting sun perfectly. The kitchen features a large L-shaped bench that provides ample storage, 600mm oven, 900mm cooktop and rangehood and, a large double door pantry. The long L-shaped bench overlooks the living and dining area that has large windows to capture the afternoon sun. A corridor runs off the open plan living area, servicing the two rear bedrooms, the main bathroom and laundry. A large sliding door opens up to a long covered alfresco, perfect for entertaining whilst the 395m² block provides you with just the right amount of yard down the size and the at the back of the home. If a central location and low maintenance is important to you, come and visit us at 48 Young Street, Lara or call Nathan Loutit on 0407 880 925 for more information.
