This three-bedroom residence combines period home features with updated finishes. Located in Brunswick West, this single-fronted brick Edwardian features a formal lounge room with an ornate fireplace which transitions into the open kitchen and dining space. Double doors open onto a north-facing backyard including an undercover decked entertaining area, a raised garden bed, and a shed for storage. The LED-lit kitchen showcases stainless steel appliances, such as a gas stove, along with stone benches and storage. Three double bedrooms, including an upstairs bedroom, and two ground-floor bedrooms with built-in robes and storage. The bedrooms share a central bathroom with a shower over the bath. Additional features include split-system heating and cooling, understair storage and laundry facility, Baltic timber floors, ornate ceilings, and a rear roller door to the right of way. Enjoy the convenience of Melville Road trams, cafes, primary and secondary schools, parks, and Brunswick Station all within the local area.
