A golden opportunity to purchase in the Township's most sought after location. This is what Country living is all about without compromising the convenience of close-by local amenities. The family home has been the pride and joy of the present owners all its life. Now it's time for the next family to enjoy all the benefits of a serene lifestyle. Uniquely designed and well orientated, the home boasts soaring raked ceilings in the huge central living area, the updated kitchen includes all mod cons,. The family/ meals area is a good size with access to the extensive veranda, perfect for entertaining. There are 5 bedrooms in total with the master serviced by the walk in robe and ensuite and an updated bathroom servicing the rest. Outside a mixture of green oasis and natural bush complements perfectly and encourages all walks of nature while maintaining privacy. Other features include a mixture of split system and wood heating, ducted cooling, large double garage and separate machinery shed (11m x 8 m approx.) with extra height and car hoist included. This homestead truly captures a unique lifestyle that all your family will love. Call for more details.
