As you approach the property, a commanding entrance beckons you inside, setting the stage for the wonders that await. The wide corridors, carefully crafted to guide potential home buyers towards the heart of the home, a vast living room adorned with 3.2m ceilings. Here, the gentle breezes flow freely, through a multitude of plantation shutters. The very recently renovated kitchen is a culinary oasis where modern appliances seamlessly merge with style and functionality. The separate dining area, with its welcoming ambiance and commanding views of the is a perfect spot for a leisurely breakfast or an intimate dinner. Master suite offering endless privacy with scenic views, Tasmanian oak floors, very spacious walk-in robe, air-conditioning and stylish ensuite with imported Italian basins. Second bedroom converted from two bedrooms to one, with dual built-in robes and the option to switch back into two separate rooms. Third bedroom with built-in robe, air-conditioning, and relaxing views. Luxurious family bathroom featuring an imported Italian bath, shutters, and seating. Forth Bedroom downstairs is a charming private haven away from the rest of house which has recently had a makeover. Private home office nook located just near the entrance and close to everything going on. Security system, air-conditioning, lots of external lighting installed since major landscaping works. The heated internal swimming pool with large skylight and natural light, overlooking the expansive natural landscape, the room perfect for that home gym or office space. Continuing the journey, the transition from the interior to the great outdoors is flawlessly executed, creating a harmonious flow between the two realms. Stepping through the open doors, a seamless connection with the surrounding land is revealed. Outside an expansive entertainers' elevated pavilion awaits, offering panoramic views that sweep across the tranquil trees. This outdoor haven, bathed in natural splendour, becomes the perfect setting for family gatherings and special celebrations. A dedicated firepit area entices you to cozy evenings spent under the starlit sky. The crackling flames providing warmth and comfort, creating an intimate ambiance where stories can be shared, and cherished memories can be forged. A sense of adventure and whimsy awaited the youngest residents, as a custom-made children's cubbyhouse nestled among the lush greenery. This charming retreat serves as a canvas for limitless imagination and endless hours of play. In the natural gardens, beehives harmoniously coexist with the landscape, a testament to the property's commitment to sustainability and the preservation of local ecosystems.
