Auction Guide $3,800,000

Claiming a prized corner position in a peaceful and leafy street moments from the buzzing hub of Cremorne village, this spacious two storey home promises relaxed family living and wonderful convenience. Freshly painted interiors reveal a flowing layout of open plan living and dining zones enriched with parquetry timber floors and washed in all-day northern sunshine, while a formal living room comes adorned with an ornate marble fireplace. The outdoors offer a selection of spaces to relax and entertain, including a private garden courtyard and sun drenched sandstone terrace. A large stone kitchen is appointed with gas cooking and the huge main bedroom comes with a walk-in robe, study/nursery and enjoys district views from its private balcony. Further appointments include two double bedrooms with built-ins, one with an ensuite, plus air conditioning, an internal laundry and double lock-up garage. The sought-after address is an easy stroll to Hayden Orpheum Picture Palace, a short walk to Middle Harbour Public and Redlands Schools, and enjoys rapid access to North Sydney and the CBD.
