49 Bulls Garden Road: Occupying over 5000sqm, 49 Bulls Garden Road is a treasure trove for developers and renovators alike. Currently hosting an original 3-bedroom home, it stands as a canvas for your grandest visions. The land's sheer size offers outstanding development potential (subject to approvals), inviting imaginative projects that could redefine the area. Alternatively, the existing structure could be the starting point for a renovation and subdivision project (subject to approvals), blending the charm of the old with the allure of the new. With its expansive footprint, it is an invitation to build dreams.

49 & 47 Combined Overview: Discover an unparalleled opportunity with these two adjoining blocks, together spanning over 6000sqm of both developed and natural land. Whether you're eyeing a small or large-scale development (subject to approvals) or seeking a lucrative investment, these properties present a unique chance. Perfectly positioned just a short drive from Charlestown Square and pristine beaches, these blocks offer fantastic potential for investors with vision. The flexibility to purchase them together or separately adds to their appeal, accommodating a variety of investment strategies.
