Presenting a stunning Gary Willemsen townhouse located in the highly sought-after Macquarie Court, designed to optimize light and space. This exceptional home boasts a prime location in the heart of the Parliamentary triangle, combining intelligent design, comfort, and style. Featuring front and rear courtyards, the property offers both privacy and scenic views, providing ample space for entertaining. The split-level layout cleverly separates the north-facing living and sleeping areas. The ground floor features a freshly upgraded kitchen equipped with stainless steel appliances and a double sink. The master suite includes an ensuite and a generous balcony, perfect for relaxing on Sunday mornings. Completing this neat and tidy offering is a single underground car space with internal access. Nestled in a leafy Inner South location, this property is within a short stroll to the Foreshore, Telopea Park, Kingston, Manuka, and popular public and private schools. Additional features of this well-designed tri-level townhouse include a separate dining area on the lower level, a north-facing lounge area opening onto courtyards and common spaces, an updated kitchen with stainless steel appliances and combined laundry/pantry, an open study area with high ceilings, a second bedroom with built-in robes, a spacious main bathroom with a bath, split system air conditioning, three convection wall heaters, a ceiling fan, and a single underground car spot.
