This fantastically positioned beach side home being only minutes' walk to the sparkling Bay beach and popular cafés and restaurants. Offering a fresh new look this sun-drenched home is newly renovated, on a large block with fully fenced back yard with plenty of room for the little ones, there is also an entertainer's deck with heating for you to entertain on those warm summer nights. The home is perfect for families with the master bedroom with built in robe and second bathroom, as well as a large living room with gas open fireplace and plenty of room for the family to relax and enjoy. There are 2 further, well-appointed bedrooms as well as a separate, self-contained studio that is perfect to utilise as a separate living area or bedroom that is inclusive with its own bathroom. The kitchen is brand new with quality appliances as well as a dining room that flows to the outdoor entertaining area. There is a huge, grassed back yard and plenty of room for parking and a monthly gardener included. Please note - furniture is available upon request.
