This substantial five bedroom home resides on a 968 square metre block and backs onto particularly amazing bushland and hills. Watch as the wildlife comes down the hills straight up to the back fence, a view that makes Alice Springs so special. Inside there are four bedrooms with built in robes, fresh carpet and all are very spacious. Two of the rooms have higher ceilings that really help to amplify the feeling of space. The master bedroom has a walk in robe and ensuite. The kitchen features substantial space for all the cookware, cutlery, and crockery and is completed with a dishwasher. There is even a stylish bench tops and a double stainless steel sink. It opens onto two areas suitable for a dining area or a second parents living area. Outside is a show stopper set beneath the bushland and base of the hills. The large verandah allows you to sit and take it all in while overlooking the spacious yard, kid's tree house and a lot more. There are also 2 garden sheds for all your tools and camping gear. This property is perfect for a growing family call Toni or Drew today on 0403 201 653
