Nestled in the peaceful and charming hamlet of Clunes, is this cosy hinterland hideaway, resplendent in privacy-creating gardens, and boasting the type of easy and carefree lifestyle that one seeks in a tropical tree-change. Stepping off the quaint main street, just metres from The Clunes Store & Cellars, the picturesque, weatherboard cottage reveals itself from within the leafy surrounds. Perfect for a morning coffee, an east-facing, covered, front patio runs the full length of the home and provides a welcoming first impression. Upon entry, the thoughtfully updated home, exudes a bright and airy atmosphere, owing in large part to its authentic design features. The timber-panelled, vaulted ceiling creates a generous sense of space over the open-plan kitchen, living, and dining room, which continues right throughout the home, including the four bedrooms, bathroom, and second living area. Lofty palms and tall trees shade the terraced backyard, leading from the covered patio, up to a gently sloping grassed area, with enough space for a pool, granny flat, or a potential second storey (STCA).
