From its panoramic position along meandering Marykirk Dve, this grand entertainer brings abundant living space to the fore from its elevated address close to Wheelers Hill Shopping Centre. Spectacular ceiling heights and magnificent windows deliver airy freedom across the expansive living zones – with a choice of formal and casual rooms in which to relax, dine and entertain. With 4 bedrooms and a study, this is a floor plan that meets the needs of the growing family with 2 bedrooms on each floor and the convenience of ground floor bedrooms for intergenerational living. A commercial sized kitchen in elegant Tasmanian Blackwood timber creates ease of movement across a free-flowing cooking hub with mountain outlooks that gift you views even from the kitchen sink. The huge rear deck provides a party sized al fresco setting, with the parkland frontage across from Marykirk Drive Reserve adding to the feeling of country style escape. The home's classic styling offers timeless appeal or the choice to add your own contemporary touches to this substantial family home on this high rising promenade serviced by local shops, schools, transport and travel connections including Caulfield Grammar, Wheelers Hill Primary and Secondary, St Justin's, Eastlink and the 754 bus to The Glen.
