This solid home has been much loved by its owners since they built it in 1960, and it's now time for the next owners to inject new life into the home and enjoy all the benefits of living on this peaceful no-thru street. Totally original and with some great features from the era it was built, there is plenty of space with its versatile floor plan. Upstairs the kitchen/dining room has views across the backyard and to the treelined hills in the distance. The sunny lounge has great views of the ocean and 2 of the 3 bedrooms have built-ins. Downstairs (internal access) is a rumpus, office, large storage room, and extra length garage. Homes in this price range are as rare as hens teeth. Don't delay, call Wendy today for more information or to arrange your private inspection.
